DA O'Malley's cosponsored bill, allowing survivors to track their rape kits, passes CA State Senate Committee

DA O'Malley's cosponsored bill SB 215, authored by Senator Connie Leyva, empowers survivors and strengthens public safety.

“Sexual assault survivors should have the right to know whether their evidence kits have been tested,” said DA O'Malley. “After bravely undergoing an exam after an assault, this bill will provide survivors with the ability to track the kit to ensure that law enforcement is doing their statutory duty to analyze the evidence in a timely manner. I want to thank Senator Leyva for authoring this important legislation as well as co-sponsors the Joyful Heart Foundation and Natasha’s Justice Project for continuing to prioritize the rights of sexual assault survivors.”
