

Nancy O'Malley
District Attorney

DID YOU KNOW...

Oakland, CA- Alameda County District Attorney Nancy O'Malley announced that charges would not be filed against Chinatown liquor store owner Aaron Yee, who last month fired shots at multiple suspects attempting to rob a woman across the street from his shop. The DA is declining to file charges based on Mr. Yee's justifiable use of force to defend the victim from a violent attack.

"The District Attorney's Office does not condone vigilantism," said District Attorney Nancy O'Malley. "However, after a thorough review of the facts of the incident, it is clear that Mr. Yee fired his weapon in lawful defense of the victim of the robbery or what appeared to be a possible kidnapping."

Read full press release here

PEOPLE V. CHRISTOPHER WARE

On February 18, 2021, a jury found defendant Christopher Ware guilty of second degree robbery with personal use of a firearm, an additional second degree robbery, identity theft, possession of a firearm as a convicted felon, and several other firearms and ammunition offenses.

Read full verdict summary here

QUICK LINKS

Alameda County Courts Case Portal: For information pertaining to specific cases.

Criminal Docket Finder: Find out when the next court date is for a particular case.

Inmate Locator: Find out the custody status of a person.

Alameda County DA's Office website: View up-to-date news and information about the office at our website.

Alameda County Family Justice Center \(ACFJC\) website: The ACFJC is a 1-stop location that provides victims of crime with legal, health, and support services, and the opportunity for physical and psychological safety, recovery and well-being.