DA NANCY O'MALLEY ANNOUNCES SHE WILL NOT SEEK RE-ELECTION

OAKLAND, CA — After 37 proud years as a member of the Alameda County District Attorney's Office, District Attorney Nancy E. O'Malley announced that she has decided not to seek a fourth term in the upcoming election.

"I could not be more thankful for the career I have had in the best District Attorney's Office in the state and certainly one of the best in the nation. The overwhelming respect for this Office is widespread and well earned," DA O'Malley said.

DA O'Malley will complete her term that ends at the beginning of 2023.

ACHIEVEMENT AWARD
Winner

Alameda County District Attorney's Office earns national achievement award for its Certified Peer Support Specialist Program.

The National Association of Counties (NACo) granted the Alameda County District Attorney's Office a 2021 Achievement Award for its Certified Peer Support Specialist Program in the category of Criminal Justice and Public Safety.

District Attorney Nancy O'Malley brought the Certified Peer Support Specialist Program (CPSS) to Alameda County to alter the pattern of repeatedly jailing low-level felony offenders and monitoring them through traditional supervision by providing peer support and opportunities for growth. She created a partnership with RI International to bring excellent peer support training and national certification to Alameda County.
