GUILTY PLEA TO PRICE GOUGING

Alameda County District Attorney O'Malley and California Department of Justice Announce Guilty Plea to Price Gouging Charges by Alameda County Grocery Store

Under the terms of the plea agreement, grocery store Apna Bazar pleaded guilty to two counts of price gouging and will donate $20,000 to a local food bank.

SACRAMENTO – Alameda County District Attorney Nancy O'Malley and the California Department of Justice (CADOJ) and today announced a plea agreement with a Pleasanton grocery store for price gouging during the pandemic. Grocery store Apna Bazar pleaded guilty to two counts of price gouging, and will also make a $20,000 donation to the Alameda County Community Food Bank. In May 2020, CADOJ and DA O'Malley announced charges against Apna Bazar for illegally raising the prices of essential food items far beyond the cap imposed under Governor Gavin Newsom's state of emergency declaration related to the COVID-19 pandemic, which triggered the price gouging protections of Penal Code section 396.

DA'S OFFICE HAS BECOME AWARE OF A SCAM INVOLVING UNSOLICITED EMAILS

The District Attorney's Office has become aware of a scam involving unsolicited emails that are seemingly sent from legitimate, well-established banks and businesses.

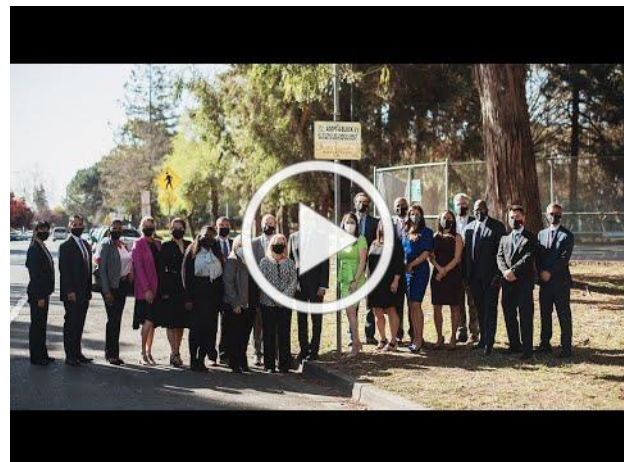

The email encourages recipients to click on a link to win a prize or another type of reward.

PLEASE BE AWARE, these emails are often not from the businesses listed and people who select the reward may be tricked into making unnecessary purchases or expenditures. To prevent these scams, check the sender's email address to see if it matches the business's.

A CONVERSATION WITH DA NANCY
O'MALLEY AND CHARLOTTE

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS:
MARSY'S LAW

As the District Attorney of Alameda County, I join national and state leaders in condemning the senseless killing of George Floyd. I join members of my Office and the community in hoping that the verdicts resulting in the convictions of former Officer Derek Chauvin will bring some healing to Mr. Floyd's family, friends, and supporters. The Alameda County District Attorney's Office will continue to seek fair, just, and unbiased justice for all. We join in the national dialogue to combat and end systemic racism that exists in our country. We add our voices in condemning racism, inequities, and bigotry in our criminal justice system.
