

Challenging Inequalities & Inequities

Before people started asking the hard questions of us, we were already asking them of ourselves.

The Alameda County District Attorney's Office demonstrates our proactive leadership in Alameda County and beyond by recognizing the challenges faced by our community that stem from society's inequalities and inequities.

A history of doing what is right. Here are just a handful of ways in which we have addressed inequality and injustice to make a difference in our communities.

